DEBT COLLECTION NOTICE
POST JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that this property is being taken by the United States Government, which has a court judgment in the Middle District of Alabama, Case No. 2:01CR00069, for the amount of $40,981.18.

In addition, you are hereby notified that there are exemptions under the law which may protect some of this property from being taken by the Government if you can show that the exemptions apply. You must elect to exempt property listed in either paragraph A or paragraph B.

The first group of exemptions consists of property that is specified in section 522(d) of Title 11 of the United States Code and which consists generally of the following property:

Paragraph A:

1. The debtor's aggregate interest, not to exceed $18,450 in value, in real property or personal property that the debtor or a dependent of the debtor uses as a residence, in a cooperative that owns property that the debtor or a dependent of the debtor uses as a residence, or in a burial plot for the debtor or a dependent of the debtor.
2. The debtor's interest, not to exceed $2,950 in value, in one motor vehicle.
3. The debtor's interest, not to exceed $475 in value in any particular item or $9,850 in aggregate value, in household furnishings, household goods, wearing apparel, appliances, books, animals, crops, or musical instruments, that are held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the debtor or a dependent of the debtor.
4. The debtor's aggregate interest, not to exceed $1,225 in value, in jewelry held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the debtor or a dependent of the debtor.
5. The debtor's aggregate interest in any property, not to exceed in value $975 plus up to $9,250 of any unused amount of the exemption provided under paragraph (1) of this subsection.
6. The debtor's aggregate interest, not to exceed $1,850 in value, in any implements, professional books, or tools, of the trade of the debtor or the trade of a dependent of the debtor.
7. Any unmaturred life insurance contract owned by the debtor, other than a credit life insurance contract.

8. The debtor's aggregate interest, not to exceed in value $9,850 less any amount of property of the estate transferred in the manner specified in section 542(d) of this title [11 USCS § 542(d)], in any accrued dividend or interest under, or loan value of, any unmaturred life insurance contract owned by the debtor under which the insured is the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is a dependent.
9. Professionally prescribed health aids for the debtor or a dependent of the debtor.
10. The debtor's right to receive -
  - (a) a social security benefit, unemployment compensation, or a local public assistance benefit;
  - (b) a veterans' benefit;
  - (c) a disability, illness, or unemployment benefit;
  - (d) alimony, support, or separate maintenance, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor;
  - (e) a payment under a stock bonus, pension, profitsharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor, unless -
    - (i) such plan or contract was established by or under the auspices of an insider that employed the debtor at the time the debtor's rights under such plan or contract arose;
    - (ii) such payment is on account of age or length of service; and
    - (iii) such plan or contract does not qualify under section 401(a), 403(a), 403(b), or 408 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
11. The debtor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to -
  - (a) an award under a crime victim's reparation law;
  - (b) a payment on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom the debtor was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor;

(c) a payment under a life insurance contract that insured the life of an individual of whom the debtor was a dependent on the date of such individual's death, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor;

(d) a payment, not to exceed $18,450, on account of personal bodily injury, not including pain and suffering or compensation for actual pecuniary loss, of the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is a dependent; or

(e) a payment in compensation of loss of future earnings of the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is or was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor;

12. Retirement funds to the extent that those funds are in a fund or account that is exempt from taxation under section 401, 403, 408, 408A, 414, 457, or 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

If you are not a resident of the State of Alabama, there may be different property exemptions available under the laws of the state in which you reside.

If you are {name of judgment debtor}, you have a right to ask the court to return your property to you if you think the property the Government is taking qualifies under one of the above exemptions [For a default judgment] or if you think you do not owe the money to the United States Government that it says you do.

If you want a hearing, you must promptly notify the court. You must make your request in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the Court at Clerk, U. S. District Court, P. O. Box 711, Montgomery, Alabama 36101. If you wish, you may use this notice to request the hearing by checking the box below and mailing this notice to the court clerk. You must also send a copy of your request to the Government at U. S. Attorney's Office, P. O. Box 197, Montgomery, Alabama 36101, so the Government will know you want a hearing. The hearing will take place within 5 days after the clerk receives your request, if you ask for it to take place that quickly, or as soon after that as possible.

At the hearing you may explain to the judge why you believe the property the Government has taken is exempt [For a default judgment:] or why you think you do not owe the money to the Government. [For a writ of execution:]. If you do not request a hearing within 20 days of receiving this notice your [property] may be sold at public auction and the payment used toward the money you owe the Government.

If you think you live outside the Federal judicial district in which the court is located, you may request, not later than 20 days after you receive this notice, that this proceeding to take your property be transferred by the court to the Federal judicial district in which you reside. You must make your request in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the court at Clerk, U. S. District Court, P. O. Box 711, or 15 Lee Street, Montgomery, Alabama 36101. You must also send a copy of your request to the Government at U. S. Attorney's Office, P. O. Box 197, Montgomery, Alabama 36101, so the Government will know you want the proceeding to be transferred.

Be sure to keep a copy of this notice for your own records. If you have any questions about your rights or about this procedure, you should contact a lawyer, an office of public legal assistance, or the clerk of the court. The clerk is not permitted to give legal advice, but can refer you to other sources of information.

_____ I/we request a hearing.
